

Every Year there is one race - only one.

Limited to 150 runners - never more.

McKenzie River Trial Run

The McKenzie River Trail Run

This is the final event in the Oregon Trail Ultramarathon Series.

This 50K offers runners a technically challenging course and the inspiration of some of Oregon's most breathtaking scenery.

Note: This event always fills up fast due to its popularity and limited number of participants - entries should be made as early as possible. Insider's tip - don't jump the gun - they will reject your entry if made before their opening date (check the mrtr.org website).
